EJD STUDENT DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

This disclosure statement is being provided to each new student upon payment of an application fee, but before payment of a registration fee, and to each returning student, prior to payment of any fee for an academic term. This disclosure must be signed by the student, who shall also receive a copy of the signed statement, and is retained by the school.

Pursuant to Guideline 11.3 of the Guidelines for Unaccredited Law School Rules, Concord Law School of Kaplan University ("Concord") states:

The method of instruction at this law school for professional law degree programs other than for the Juris Doctor degree is principally by technological means including interactive classes.

Completion of a professional law degree program at this law school other than for the Juris Doctor degree does not qualify a student to take the California Bar Examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to practice law in California. It may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy the requirements for admission to the practice of law in any other jurisdiction. A student intending to seek admission to practice law should contact the admitting authority in the jurisdictions where the student intends to seek to qualify to sit for the bar examination or for admission to practice for information regarding the legal education requirements in that jurisdiction for admission to the practice of law.

I acknowledge receipt of a copy of this disclosure statement which consists of 16 pages, including this signature page, on the date listed below.
